

If you are one of the millions of Americans living through or contemplating a divorce, you understand the importance of one managed with integrity -- one that allows you to move on with your life without lingering bitterness, anger, or regret. In Conscious Divorce, Susan Allison, a survivor of the divorce process and a clinical hypnotherapist, offers advice that motivates you to view divorce not as a failure but as a transitional time when both partners can embrace the new direction their lives are taking. Every aspect of the process of divorce -- from practical financial planning to communicating with your partner, family, and friends to the importance of taking care of your mental and physical health -- is presented in this empowering guide. Conscious Divorce is a valuable information source for anyone looking for the support and strength to face this phase of life with awareness, with patience, and ultimately with peace.
