

Toddlers will be delighted with this combination boardbook and toy cell phone. The front cover has a make-believe numbered key pad that's just like a real phone. Better yet, a big, round plastic button, securely glued to the book's last page, pops through a circular die-cut on all pages and appears through the front cover. When kids press this button, the phone rings, sounding exactly like a real cell phone. The book's story has cheerful full-color illustrations on laminated pages. It's all about kids who keep in touch with their friends--by phone!
