

This is a social experiment. I'm curious to see how many people will spend money on nothing. Let me be as transparent as possible: with the exception of a few random pages noting "Chapters," which are mainly included for satirical purposes, this book is entirely blank. Don't buy it. You'll literally be buying a blank book. There isn't some hidden message somewhere on one of the pages. There isn't some deep meaning to the blank pages. It's simply a blank book. If you still don't believe me, feel free to scroll through the blank book yourself. If your curiosity gets the best of you and you decide to purchase this big blank book, feel free to write a review and let others know it truly is blank!
