

In these days, i believe there is a need of good energy, creativity and calm nights. For everyone. This magazine holds the right to come in peace. No political positions, no government involvements, borders, statements of hatred, defense or using power. We only show the power of creation, the power of humanity in art, by art. There is a quote i love deeply, from one of the most inspiring books i have ever read: I sat day after day in my little room, waiting for inspiration to visit me, trying to invent a pseudonym that would express, in a combination of noble and striking sounds, our dream of artistic achievement, a pen name grand enough to compensate for my own feeling of insecurity and helplessness at the idea of everything my mother expected from me. Romain Gary. Promise at dawn (1960) In this issue we exhibit an excellent collection of art.
