

Carrie Hill hates Indians. Indians killed her parents and ruined her life. With nowhere else to go, fifteen-year-old Carrie signs on to help care for the family of Beaver Dick Leigh, an English trapper. To her dismay, Carrie discovers that Beaver Dicks wife, Jenny, is a Shoshoni Indian! But as Carries wounds heal under Jennys gentle care, she begins to respect and love this kind woman. Beginning each chapter with an excerpt from Beaver Dick Leighs actual journals, Kristiana Gregory brings alive the people and the dramatic setting of a bygone era.
