

The National Council of Catholic Women was founded in 1920 by the U.S. Catholic bishops and was given the mandate to respond with Gospel values to the needs of the Church and society in the modern world. The history of the first seventy-five years of the National Council of Catholic Women--from its inception in 1920 until 1995--is detailed, with extensive historical research provided by the author, Ruth O'Halloran. NCCW acts through its membership to support, empower, and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership and service.
