

The reflection of every woman, if she should see her true self would reveal to her the royal stateliness of her inner self. We as women need to stop seeing ourselves as mere women. We are dynamically powerful women, strong, dignified and full of courage. Believe that because it is true. God created you in His image. Where you have been no longer matters. Focus on where you are going. Allow yourself to walk with the confidence that you are created from the divine fabric of God. You are His queen. Believe it. Embrace it. Live it!
