

The Dresser Drawer is very happy holding the boys clothes until one day his world starts to change. His friend Sunflower Painting disappears. New furniture comes into the room. And he undergoes a transformation into a hanger! As he copes with these many changes he begins to learn that although change can be scary, one can adapt to it and still be happy afterwards. "The Hanger Drawer" is a wonderful tale for any child up to six years old, but is especially intended for children having difficulty with sudden change and/or transitions into new circumstances. Children dealing with parental divorce, moving to a new town, the loss of friends, spectrum disorders or sensory integration disorders will especially relate to "The Hanger Drawer" and its theme of recovering from change and the rebuilding of balance and self-worth. Ages 2 - 6.
