

A suspenseful and intriguing story as recounted by an Indian Chief telling of his intense grief, sorrow and tragedy encountered in his life time, his life dream. Then the connection to it as Magdalena journeys into her own life to heal. The Chiefs story presents a puzzle piece of healing to her and those she knows. Each step on her life journey moves Magdalena to opening her heart and that of the Princess thus setting her free and bringing understanding. As Magdalena heals her heart those connected to her also heal; the journey is not separate; it is a journey of oneness. Piece after piece present with the opportunity to step off the karmic wheel of incarnation after incarnation, realizing the illusive missing piece she had been working on lifetime after lifetime to overcome, and bring meaning. Pieces come together, forming the whole picture, not just the aspects of who Magdalena may have been, but those along in her journey heal. The Princess is a crucial player in presenting healing to Magdalena as she also is a human being incarnate in this journey called life playing out her own drama and dancing on the path of Oneness.
